

CONTENTS

Dedication	iv
Acknowledgments	v
Abstract	vii
I. INTRODUCTION
A. Statement of the Problem	1
B. Literature Study	8
1. Latin American liberation theology	8
2. Black liberation theology	9
3. Feminist liberation theology	10
4. Islamic liberation theology	11
C. Open Questions	14
D. Purpose of the Study	14
E. Research Methodology	15
II. LIBERATION THEOLOGY AND PROSTITUTION
A. Basic Principles of Liberation Theology	18
1. The emergence of liberation theology	18
2. Preferential option for the poor	20
3. Examining the root problem	23
4. The Bible read by the poor	25
5. The oppressed people are object and subject of liberation	26
6. The hermeneutic circle	28
7. Further developments of liberation theology	31
B. Prostitution	39
1. Sexual abuse	41
2. Deception and coercion	46
3. Effects of prostitution	49
4. Prostitution as structural sin	56

5. Criminalization of prostitution	58
6. Dualistic religious/moral views of women and sexuality	60
7. Social definitions of women as sex objects	60
C. Liberation Theology for Women in Prostitution	62
1. The work of Brock and Thistlethwaite	63
2. Christian liberation theology on prostitution	69
3. The oppression of women in prostitution as structural sin	70
4. How theological doctrines of sin are misused to condemn women in prostitution to further abuse and justify their suffering	71
5. Rethinking compassion: giving the grace and support that Jesus offered to women in prostitution	75
6. Co-operation with women in prostitution to end their oppression by attacking the structural sin that shapes the sex industry and social attitudes toward women and sex	76
III. ISLAMIC FEMINIST THEOLOGY
A. Defining Islamic Feminist Theology	78
1. Is feminism a form of western hegemony?	82
2. The spirit of liberation and the abolition of blocks	85
3. The influence of feminism in Islam	86
4. Hermeneutic method for interpreting sacred texts	90
B. Contemporary Prostitution in Jogjakarta	94
1. Prostitution in the Muslim community	103
2. Tensions between women in prostitution and radical Muslims	105
3. Prostitution and the policy of the new order	108
4. Pasar Kembang (a case study)	109
C. Islamic Liberation Theology for Women in Prostitution	123
1. Islamic humanism	123
2. Islamic humanism and prostitution	129

3. Islamic theology deconstruction	133
4. Rethinking text and tradition concerning prostitution	134
5. Islamic law: should it eradicate prostitution?	140

IV. CONCLUSION

A. Combining Christian and Islamic Theology in Praxis	149
B. Practices with Spirit of Love	150
C. Practices with Spirit of Justice and Jihad	152
D. Implementing Love and Justice in Long-term Works	155
E. Women in Prostitution as Subjects of Praxis	158
Bibliography	160
Appendix	