ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, I would like to thank my family for patiently letting me finish this research and supporting me despite my bouts of laziness. Thank you dad for financing my schooling and being a cool lawyer role model, much appreciated.

Thank you Prof. Marsudi Triatmodjo for his gracious time and guidance in this legal research writing process since the first time I forwarded my idea for it back in the 6th semester. Along with him, I also extend my thanks to all lecturers, especially those from the international law department, for all the time and knowledge you've given as I close my time as a student here.

I would also like to thank the diplomats from the Indonesian MOFA for, one, giving me the idea of this research during my internship there, and two, for allowing me to interview them and discuss with them various aspects on this topic. I would still be stuck in a stubborn writer's block otherwise.

Finally, this research writing process could not have been done without the love and support of my dearest friends and loved ones. Nadin, Michelle, Titha, Molas, Lora, my nurem troops, and my fellow international law department mates. This research was made much more bearable with your jokes and shared anxieties, and I can only extend my infinite gratitude to you. Yazid, thank you for keeping me level-headed, looking out for my well-being, and accompanying me the entire process; always my most patient supporter. Much love.
