ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In writing this bachelor thesis I found great solace writing about something I value very much – education – and the opportunity to identify the nexus to the needs around me proved to be very fulfilling. I want to take these few pages to rightfully appreciate those without whom I would not have been able to write this thesis to culminate my four years in law school. I want to express my deepest gratitude to:

1. First and foremost, my family. Papa and mama, for your unwavering support and sacrifice. For praying for me daily, providing the means for me to study, pushing me to try things I was afraid of, wanting me to succeed at every step and embracing me even when I fail. Without your love and faithful encouragement, I would be at a loss. For Gabs, you will always be my little sister. Thank you for motivating me to be a good example for you and to be someone you are proud of.
2. To my dearest friends in Maastricht, to my family at Redeemer and 1830s, thank you for being the sweetest surprise during the two years I was in the Netherlands. I am grateful for the kindness, the support, the living-life-together. Without all of you I would not have thrived, or even survived the European Law School (it was difficult) and life in general (more difficult). Kwesi Awity, Matías Ehren, Aron Bosman, Kaily Renjaan, Alyssia Leiwakabessy, Lore van Ginkel, Tricia Luger, Monica Ratinen, Mirthe Kuning, Jo-ine Ter Haar, Catalina Pavlov, Hannah Lear, Ariel Bussani, Petra Sablova. Here’s a well done to my fellow double degree fam, for Rachmadinsa Dwininditha, for triple F: Fikri Fahmi Faruqi, for Dylan Jesse Andrian, Keyla and Anya whom I will thank separately in the next point. Special shoutout for my family in the Netherlands, the Townsends and the Brohets, tante Jeanne and oom Wim, oom Ongki and tante Yanti, Marco, Shannon, Don. To Xavier Steijvers (my coworker and friend, who made me cappuccinos and played Taylor Swift after every exhausting shift at the restaurant), to Lisanne Hoeve who was my first familiar face outside of family, and truly so many others that I cannot name one by one. Thank you.
3. To my two confidants in Maastricht and now Indonesia, Anya and Keyla. For encouraging me when I failed (multiple times), yet still believing in me and affirming my intelligence and strength. For studying with me and doing life with me (which includes everything from taking care of me when I am sick to travelling to fun destinations!) Thank you for allowing me a safe space to share my burdens, and most importantly fostering a friendship where we succeed and grow together.

4. To my friends and community in Brunei who encourage me and pray for me, Whui Koh, Tricia Gian, Hannah Chin, Esther Lau and Maria Qusyairi, Becky Elicay, Kathy Chin, Natalie Leong.
5. To my wonderful community in EW Jogja, you have all made my newness to Indonesia less scary and more beautiful. Tri Adi Wicaksono, Vanessa Gonzalez, Mary Budi Harsana, Yohanes Raka, Simplicity FC, and every single smiling face I see almost every day at the IEC. Thank you for loving on me and encouraging me.
6. To Prof. dr. Ova Emilia, M.Med.Ed., Sp.OG(K), Ph.D., as the Rector of Universitas Gadjah Mada; Ibu Dahliana Hasan, S.H., M.Tax., Ph.D., as the Dean of Faculty of Law and Dr. Wahyu Yun Santoso, S.H., M.Hum., LL.M., as the Double-Degree Program Coordinator; Prof. Dr. Agustinus Supriyanto, S.H., M.Si., as the Head of the International Law Department of Fakultas Hukum Universitas Gadjah Mada and as my joint thesis supervisor along with Prof. Dr. Lisa Waddington of Universiteit Maastricht, and Prof. Dr. Andrea Broderick of Universiteit Maastricht as my second thesis assessor of my Maastricht Bachelor Thesis.
7. To all my past mootng, mediation and client-consultation coaches and colleagues in Nuremberg Moot Court, CDRC and Brown-Mosten ICCC respectively, for which I cannot name one by one. These experiences and lessons learned have in no doubt contributed much to my growth as a law student. A special mention to Agustin Parise, my and Dylan's coach in the ICCC, thank you for your confidence in us, and for pushing us to value rest and to believe in our abilities.
8. The entire team of lecturers and staff of the Faculty of Law, Universitas Gadjah Mada and Universiteit Maastricht. I am forever grateful for all the knowledge and guidance you have all imparted me.
9. To the staff and students at the Student Activity Unit of the Diffable Care in Universitas Gadjah Mada who have very kindly included me in their community. Thank you for opening my eyes and heart, for giving me the opportunity and support to interview and shed light on the topic of Education for Persons with Disabilities. Thank you to Dr. Wuri Handayani, S.E., Ak., M.Si., M.A., Ph.D., who was the only academic who answered my emails my search for information on communities for PWD in Indonesia, thank you for opening the first door for me and connecting me with the wonderful people of Student Activity Unit of Diffable Care. Thank you as well to Mas Bima for helping me contact the students and arranging the focus group discussions.

10. And most importantly, to my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, my counsellor, good father, friend, Lord Almighty. Thank you, God, for blessing me beyond measure and I pray that in all I do, You will be glorified. May my weaknesses reflect Your abundant grace. May my strengths reflect Your great goodness. I would not have gotten this far without Your kindness in my life, and all the people placed in it to help me. Would You bless all those who have helped me be who I am and where I am today. Amen!

Finally, I understand and acknowledge that this bachelor thesis is not without its imperfections. Therefore, any comments and suggestions for this legal research are much appreciated. I hope this legal research can provide knowledge and references to anyone who reads it, and sparks interest for readers to gain a better understanding on the intersection of Human Rights for Persons with Disabilities.
