ABSTRACT

This research aims to determine and analyze the validity of the Deed of Sale and Purchase of land subject to the case which has been bound by a Sale and Purchase Agreement in the Supreme Court Decision Number 7 PK/Pdt/2022 as well as to find out and analyze legal protection for buyers against sellers who do not comply with the Sale and Purchase Agreement. Purchase and transfer the object of the case through a Deed of Sale and Purchase to another party.

This research is normative legal research which is supported by field research. The nature of the research is descriptive qualitative. The approach used is a statutory approach. The data used is primary data obtained from research subjects through interviews with resource persons and secondary data obtained through literature study. Data analysis in this research was carried out qualitatively.

Based on the research results, the Deed of Sale and Purchase of land subject to the case which has been bound by the Sale and Purchase Agreement in the Supreme Court Decision Number 7 PK/Pdt/2022 is invalid because it does not fulfill the legal requirements for an agreement in Article 1320 of the Civil Code regarding halal agreements and causes. The agreement between the parties was formed imperfectly because there was an element of fraud, while a lawful cause was made with a prohibited cause which was contrary to the law. The legal protection that can be given to the buyer because the seller does not fulfill the Sale and Purchase Agreement and transfers the object of the case through the Sale and Purchase Deed to another party in this case is external legal protection. Buyers can obtain external legal protection by filing a breach of contract lawsuit with the competent court. The buyer in his lawsuit can file a claim for fulfillment of performance as well as a claim for compensation.
