ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Alhamdulillah, by the grace and mercy of Allah SWT, I have been able to complete this S2 journey while balancing work and fully supporting myself. It has truly been a wonderful and fulfilling experience. I extend my deepest gratitude to Dr. dr. Mubasysyir Hasanbasri, MA., Head of the Public Health Graduate Program, and to the amazing team, especially Emilia, for their early support, which allowed me to manage both my studies and professional duties.

I am sincerely thankful to my advisors, dr. Vicka Oktaria, MPH., PhD., and Bayu Satria Wiratama, S.Ked., MPH., PhD., for their invaluable guidance from the earliest stages of my research to the completion of this thesis. I also deeply appreciate the stakeholders at the Port Health Office Soekarno Hatta for facilitating the process.

I am forever grateful to my mother, whose constant encouragement motivated me to pursue my higher studies; to my father for his unwavering faith in me; and to my partner, who has been by my side through every ebb and flow. To my family and friends, your generosity and support have meant the world to me.

Finally, thank you to the readers. I hope this thesis inspires in you the same hope and optimism for a better Indonesia that it has given me throughout this journey. Any correspondence to discuss or further explore this work is warmly welcomed.
