

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION	7
1.1 Background	7
1.2 Research Question	9
1.3 Literature Review	9
1.4 Theoretical Framework	12
1.5 Main Argument	13
1.6 Research Methods	14
1.7 Thesis Structure	16

CHAPTER II

CONDITIONS OF DISLOCATION IN INDONESIAN ELECTIONS:

THE MANY FACES OF POPULIST ARTICULATIONS	18
2.1 The Changing Forms of Populist Articulations in Indonesia’s Electoral Politics	18
2.1.1 Jokowi the New Man in Politics: Populist Outsider vs. Elite (2012-2014)	19
2.1.2 The Case of Jakarta’s Gubernatorial Election: Pluralism vs. Islamism (2017)	21
2.1.3 Jokowi’s Second Term: Moderate vs. Conservative Identity Politics (2019)	22
2.1.4 Prabowo’s Continuity vs Anies Baswedan’s Change (2024)	23
2.2 Strategic Reliance on Youth in Response to Dislocations	24

CHAPTER III

COMPETING HEGEMONIC PROJECTS:

YOUTH’S DEPOLITICISATION VS REPOLITICATION	26
3.1 Competing Populist Strategies and the Construction of Youth Subjectivities	26
3.1.1 Gibran as Token Youth and Prabowo’s “Gemoy” Branding	27
3.1.2 Confrontative Politics and Social Media Personas of Anies-Imin	35
3.2 Hegemonic Failure and Fall Into the Politics of Fandom	39

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION	43
-------------------	-----------