

Table of Contents

Approval	ii
Statement.....	iii
Forward.....	iv
Table of Contents.....	v
Abstract	vii
Intisari	viii
CHAPTER I	1
INTRODUCTION	1
1.1. Background: Unsettling Western LGBT Dominant Narratives	1
1.2. Research Questions	5
1.3. Objective of Research.....	6
1.4. Literature Review	7
1.4.1. Postcolonial Multiplicities of Gender and Sexuality in the Global South	8
1.4.2. Queer Muslims Studies in Demographics	10
1.4.3. Indonesian Queer Muslims	11
1.4.4. Queer Menafsir (Amar Alfikar's Queer Interpretation of Islam)	13
1.5. Theoretical Frameworks	15
1.5.1. Intersectionality	15
1.5.2. Decolonizing Every Day	16
1.5.3. Queer Religiosities	17
1.6. Research Method.....	18
1.6.1. Data collection.....	19
1.6.2. Data analysis	21
1.6.3. Ethical considerations	21
1.7. The Structure of Thesis.....	24
CHAPTER II	26
BEYOND THE RAINBOW: PRIDE AND RESILIENCE OF QUEER MUSLIMS IN WESTERN-CENTERED SPACES	26
2.1. Critics on Western-centered Pride Parade	26
2.1.1. 'The White Spaces'	26
2.1.2. From Protest to Commodity: Pinkwashing and Rainbow Capitalism	29

2.1.3. Visibility Trap and the Politics of Coming Out in Public Space.....	31
2.2. Situating Queer Communities in Indonesia	33
2.2.1. Decentering Western Pride: Voice of Queer Muslims.....	36
2.2.2. Ijtihad (Reformation) from Heteropatriarchy in Islamic Narrative	41
2.2.3. Narrating Resilience through Story-Telling	46
2.3. Conclusion of Chapter II	48
CHAPTER III.....	51
TELLING STORIES: THREE QUEER MUSLIMS PLUS AN ALLY EXPERIENCES	51
3.1. The Story of Ji.....	51
3.2. Story of Ro.....	78
3.3. Story of Durga.....	95
3.4. Story of Fik	118
3.5. Conclusion of Chapter III	146
CHAPTER IV.....	147
PARTICIPANT'S QUEER RELIGIOSITIES: NARRATIVE ANALYSIS ON DECOLONIZING QUEER THEORY AND RELIGIOUS STUDIES.....	147
4.1. Participant's Queer Religiosities	148
4.1.1. Stories and Conversations: Narrating Resilience and Belonging	148
4.1.2. Practices: Queer Embodiment of Religion and Performing Queer Faith.....	150
4.1.3. Identities: Becoming Queerly Religious	152
4.1.4. Communities: Living Beyond Binaries.....	154
4.1.5. Power and Politics: Negotiating Visibility and Safety.....	156
4.2. Telling Stories as Decolonial Reimagination on Queer Theory and Religious Studies	158
4.2.1. Narrative as Method, Narrative as Power	158
4.2.2. Queer Epistemologies of Faith: Queer Muslim Religiosities and Knowledge- Making of Every Day Life Religion.....	160
CHAPTER V	163
CONCLUSION	163
References	170