

Table of Content

Table of Content	1
Abstract	2
Chapter I : Introduction	3
1.1 Background	3
1.2 Research Question	5
1.3 Literature Review: Postcolonial Identity, Hybridity, and Economic Negotiations	5
1.4 Conceptual Framework	7
1.5 Main Argument	8
1.6 Methodology	10
1.7 Structure of Thesis	11
Chapter II : Awakening of French Colonialism, The Colonial Process of French Algeria	12
2.1 Wine, The French Symbol of National Identity	13
2.2 French's Civilizing Mission Narratives	15
2.3 The Origins of Colonial Agrarian Policies in Algeria's Wine Industry	16
2.4 A Monopoly : French's Economic Policies on Algeria's Wine	20
Chapter III : Navigating through the Colonial Legacy, Where Two Worlds Collide	23
3.1 Colonial Agrarian Policies : The Politics of Agriculture, Land, and Labor	23
3.2 An Economic Aftermath : Nationalization of Hydrocarbon and the Future of Wine Economy	26
3.3 Memory vs. Erasure, A Collective Trauma	28
Chapter IV : The Aftermath of Algeria's Wine Industry	31
4.1 Unveiling the Colonial Institutional System	31
4.2 The Making of Hybrid Identity : Between Economic Expectations and Postcolonial Identity	33
Chapter V : Conclusion	36
Reference	42