

ABSTRACT

After 11 September 2001 attack, world begin 'the new world'. United States claim as the leader of the world campaign war against terrorism of all the world. United States bring whole of the world to the situation with 'chaostic'. The central figure of this war is Osama bin Laden who accused by the United States government as a leader of the group of terrorist who's call Al Qaeda.

Since the war was beginning until this time, the world political situation in turbulence condition. In the one side, United States attacking the terrorist group in every countries, and bring the United States troops to Afghanistan and Iraq as 'a land of terrorist'. In the other side the terrorist group never stop their action to attack American interest and facilities in every place of the world. This situation make the world in the war condition.

That's situation make global politics became a hegemonic rule with the United States as a powerfull country who control of the world. There;s no other countries or global institution, like United Nations able to change that's situation, because there are under control of United States hegemony. Most of all, United States use the war against terrorism as a 'weapon' to reach their goal became a leader of the world.

Actually, althought United States look like control of the world, and push the countries who accused supporting the terrorist group, but the actions of groups of terrorism, especially Al Qaeda never end. More and more al Qaeda and other terrorist group became bigger and bigger. War against terrorism make terrorist group more bravely than before.

So, there is no doubt, the world is like someone get in the dark hole. World became a situation of Balance of Terror. War against terrorism is not succesfull yet, and never end, because, this not just a war, this is a the ambitions of United States to became of the leader of the world. And that is a something never end until the government of United States change their view and perspective of how to make the new world order with a justice for the people of all the world.

Key Words : Terrorism, War against terrorism, Global Politics, Hegemony.