

ABSTRACT

Companies will have long planning and short planing to run their business strategies. Their planning dependent with their equity in their company. Companies run the business dependen with funding alternatif such as: equity, debt, obligation or bond. Good capital structure will be increasing company value. This research aim to reconfirm the factors that give impact with capital structure.

To measure the factors that give impact with capital structure look from many aspect. The factors that give impact to the capital structure such as business risk, tangibility, firm size, profitability from companies in customer goods industries that listed in Bursa Efek Indonesia.

This research used regression to know which factor have significant efect with capital structure. Result from this research dependent variabel tangibility have significant efect with capital structure.

Key word: Total debt to total asset (TDAR), firm size, tangibility, profitability.