

Table of Contents

Acknowledgement	3
Abstract	4
Chapter I	7
Preface	7
1.1 Background	7
1.2 Research Question	8
1.3 Theoretical Framework	8
1.4 Main Argument	10
1.5 Methodology	11
1.6 Thesis Outline	12
Chapter II	13
Strategic Development in Indo-Pacific: Motives, Strategies and Relations	13
2.1 The rise of China's influence in Indo-Pacific: Contesting initiatives	13
2.2 Sino-US struggle for dominance in Indo-Pacific	16
2.2.1 US strategy in Indo-Pacific	18
2.3 Contestation over Indian Ocean: Sino-Indian tension	19
2.4 The Role of Middle Powers: Australia and its Maritime Security strategy in Indo-Pacific	22
2.5 ASEAN centrality and the position of Southeast Asian states in Indo-Pacific initiative	24
Chapter III	26
Balance of Power Analysis in Indo-Pacific Initiative: Contesting Power	26
3.1 Defining and operationalizing insecurity of the Indo-Pacific initiating actors	26
3.2 Theory and Practice of Balance of Power in Indo-Pacific	27
3.2.1 Balance of Power in Asia: Dibb's early prediction of Indo-Pacific emergence	27
3.2.2 Scott's analyses on Indo-Pacific initiative	29
3.2.3 Balance of threat and insecurity	31
3.3 Mapping Indo-Pacific power contestation in the concert of balance of power	32
3.3.1 Power contestation between US and China	33
3.3.2 China versus Indo-Pacific: balancing against perceived threat	36

3.4 The significance of middle power and ASEAN centrality in the midst of ongoing power contestation	39
Chapter IV	42
Conclusion	42
Bibliography	43