

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Approval Page.....	i
Statement.....	ii
Acknowledgements.....	iii
Table of Contents.....	vii
List of Abbreviations.....	x
List of Figures.....	xi
Abstract.....	xiii

Chapter 1

INTRODUCTION

1. Background of the Study.....	1
2. Research Statement.....	13
3. Objectives of the Research.....	14
4. Literature Reviews.....	15
5. Research Methodology.....	19
6. Data Analysis.....	33
7. Significance.....	35
8. Presentation of Chapters.....	37

Chapter 2

PHENOMENOLOGY OF RELIGION, RELIGION AND ARTS, RELIGION AND THE BODY

1. Introduction.....	40
2. Phenomenology of Religion.....	42
3. Contested Views on Religion, Religious and Religiosity.....	51
4. The Interplay of Religion and Arts.....	53
4.1. When Arts is at Work, Religion Appears as Medium.....	56
4.2. The Landscape of Religion and Religiosity in Art Works.....	60
4.3. Manifesting Religion in Arts.....	64
5. The Contested Relation of Religion and the Body.....	68
5.1. The Arena for One's Body?.....	69
5.2. Body and Mind: Debates on What Comes First?.....	72
5.3. Embodiment.....	78
5.4. Expressing Spirituality through the Works of Religion and Aesthetics.....	81
5.5. Embodied Religion: The Values of Immanence and Transcendence.....	84
6. Concluding Remarks.....	88

Chapter 3

RAMAYANA, GOLEK MENAK, AND SHOLAWATAN EMPRAK: DANCING IN THE JAVANESE MUSLIM VICINITY

1. Introduction.....	91
2. The Practices of Hindu and Islamic Arts Legacy.....	92
2.1. The Advent of Hinduism and Islam and Their Aesthetic Features.....	93
2.2. The Establishment of Ramayana Ballet in Prambanan Temple.....	98
2.2.1. Ramayana Full Story and Its Characters.....	103
2.2.2. Double Casts Issues and Character Shifting.....	112
2.3. The Undone Golek Menak Court Dance.....	114
2.3.1. Kelaswara Palakrama: An Episode of the Marriage of Kelaswara.....	118
2.3.2. A Dance Fragment of Adaninggar-Kelaswara and the Critics over Costumes.....	122
2.4. Sholawatan Emprak Klenggotan: A Revitalized Islamic Dance Practice.....	127
2.4.1. Javanized Sholawatan: Wayang Wong Elements in Emprak Dance....	133
2.4.2. The Performances of Sholawatan Emprak.....	135
2.4.3. The Absence of Fixation upon Emprak Dance Performance.....	139
3. Dance Experience in Islam-affiliated Community.....	142
3.1. Dance Engagement in Javanese Muslim Neighborhood.....	143
3.2. Experiencing Ramayana and Golek Menak.....	150
3.3. Within the Contested Values of Islamic Golek Menak.....	156
3.4. Javanese Muslim Dancers and the Intertwining Positions amid Hindu-Ramayana and Islamic Golek Menak.....	162
3.5. Performing Ramayana during Ramadan Fasting Month.....	167
3.6. Mbah Adi Winarto and Sholawatan Emprak Islamic Dance.....	169
4. Religion that Mediates.....	175
4.1. On the Values of Self, Dance and Islamic Identity.....	176
4.2. Dancing as a Form of Veneration/ Ibadah	179
4.3. Participating in Sholawatan Emprak and Dakwah Purposes.....	183
4.3.1. Contested Values of Participation upon Emprak Female Members.....	183
5. Concluding Remarks.....	185

Chapter 4

SPIRITUAL BODY: EMBODYING THE DANCE AND THE PURSUIT OF TRANSCENDENTAL EXPERIENCES

1. Introduction.....	189
2. On the Values of Perceiving Corporeal Body and Praise to God.....	191
3. Seeking Transcendental Experiences through Aesthetic Bodily Practices.....	196
4. Divergent Ideas on Traversing the "Body".....	207
5. The Dancing Body Doing Religion.....	224

5.1. The Transformation of Spiritual Bodily Movement into Dancing Body.....	230
6. Articulating Women's Bodies in Social Sphere.....	238
6.1. The Mobility of Hijab and Aesthetic Concerns.....	241
6.2. The Woman as the Flower of the Dance.....	252
6.3. The Men Costuming the Female Dancer in Emprak.....	255
6.4. No Public Romance for Woman and Woman.....	258
7. Embodying the Characters: Stage Life and Everyday Life.....	260
8. Sholawatan Emprak and the Motivation for Embodied Dancing.....	270
9. Concluding Remarks.....	271

Chapter 5

THE SOCIAL SPECTRUM OF RELIGION AND DANCE: CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES

1. Introduction.....	275
2. Aesthetic Features in Religious Practices.....	276
2.1. Performative Arts within Ritual Context.....	279
3. Practicing Religion, Performing Art: A Socially Created Phenomenon.....	283
4. Contesting the Discourse of Culture, Dance and Gender.....	295
4.1. Islam and Mixed-gender Gathering.....	303
4.2. On the Values of Women and Morality.....	304
5. Social and Cultural Changes upon the Identity of Sholawatan Emprak Female Dancers	307
6. The Interfaith Encounters of Christian Dancers: Performing Ramayana in Javanese Muslim Context.....	311
6.1. Interfaith Relations through Ramayana Dance.....	313
6.2. I'm a Christian, I'm Dancing Ramayana.....	315
6.3. I'm Engaging with the Muslim in Prambanan.....	321
6.4. Conflicting Ideas on Religious Symbols and Javanese Aesthetic Elements.....	326
6.5. "Ramayana Prambanan is a story, not a worship act": A View from a Javanese Ramayana Hindu Female Dancer.....	334
7. Concluding Remarks.....	338

Chapter 6

CONCLUSION	340
-------------------------	-----

REFERENCES	353
-------------------------	-----

LIST OF INFORMANTS	xiv
---------------------------------	-----

APPENDICES	xvii
-------------------------	------

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS

GMY	Greget Mataram Yogyakarta
OMM	Obahing Magersari Manunggal
PT TWC	PT Taman Wisata Candi
SMKI	Sekolah Menengah Kejuruan I
STKA	Sanggar Tari Kusuma Aji
UGM	Universitas Gadjah Mada
UKJGS	Unit Kesenian Jawa Surakarta
UNY	Universitas Negeri Yogyakarta

LIST OF FIGURES

Figure 1. Phenomenology of Religion	47
Figure 2. Rama and Shinta are trying to catch the golden deer	106
Figure 3. Anoman meets with Dewi Shinta in Soka Garden Alengka, behind is Trijatha	108
Figure 4. Rama, Laksmana and monkey troops are crossing the bridge in their journey to Alengka	109
Figure 5. The Battle between Rama and Rahwana, also described as a battle of good and evil	111
Figure 6. Amir Ambyah of Golek Menak.....	120
Figure 7. Dewi Kelaswara of Golek Menak	121
Figure 8. Dewi Adaninggar (Chinese Princess) of Golek Menak	121
Figure 9. Fragment of Adaninggar-Kelaswara	126
Figure 10. With the Garuda Birds at the end part	126
Figure 11. The stage arrangement for the Sholawatan Emprak dancers.....	138
Figure 12. Dancers doing knee-step movements to enter the stage.....	139
Figure 13. Dancers demonstrating dance motion in sitting position	139
Figure 14. Ya Sayyid song.....	171
Figure 15. The recitation of Hong Ilaheng after the first song of Ya Sayyid in the rawen	172
Figure 16. Meeting Emprak members for interview with Mbah Adi, Bibit and Sayekti.....	174
Figure 17. Srokak part describing the thawaf when Abdul Muthalib carries Muhammad going around Ka'bah	183
Figure 18. Hartati reads the Emprak song lyric s during Sholawatan Emprak Practice	185
Figure 19. Hand forms of Javanese dance mudra	203
Figure 20. A scene of perang kembang between “female” Arjuna and Cakil.....	212
Figure 21. Wiwid performing Shinta	218
Figure 22. Wisnu performing Rama	218
Figure 23. Golek Ayun-ayun dance performed in Pendapa Royal Ambarrukmo Yogyakarta	219
Figure 24. A Performance of Golek Lambangsari performed by men in Kepatihan.....	222
Figure 25. The Bedhaya Hagoromo male dancers began the dance	223
Figure 26. A male dancer, RM Sagitama Krisnandaru, from a noble family joined the Bedhaya Hagoromo.....	223
Figure 27. Widodo demonstrates a move of takbir to begin sholat prayer in Islam and its stylized dance movement	233

Figure 28. Sembah move and the stylized takbir move in Golek Menak dance.....	233
Figure 29. Modified- sujud move in Sholawatan Emprak dance Mbangkel	235
Figure 30. Tio's everyday life with hijab	245
Figure 31. Tio's stage life as Trijata without hijab	245
Figure 32. Tio at Panca Budaya dance rehearsal (left, Tri Warsito).....	246
Figure 33. Before making-up, Yayuk and Prista	248
Figure 34. Prista in hijab	248
Figure 35. Yayuk and Prista without hijab dancing Ramayana as female supporting Character	248
Figure 36. Female students with hijab of UKJGS wear men costume	250
Figure 37. After Ramayana performance, UKJGS did a group photo. The veiling performers in kebaya sat in front.....	251
Figure 38. Sholawatan Emprak dancers after a performance in Srimulyo Bantul.....	257
Figure 39. A love dance between a "female" male character and a female character	259
Figure 40. Widodo in his performance as Rahwana	266
Figure 41. A female dancer doing a solo Sufi dance at Sufi Festival 2013 in Israel	286
Figure 42. A Muslim female dancer represents her being a Muslim while performing a Javanese classical dance by covering her body with manset ...	290
Figure 43. Prapti in grey hijab and dark outfits leads the women at a practice	309
Figure 44. Theresia performing putri-putri for Wisnumurti Group	320
Figure 45. Endra in Saudi Arabia for a cultural mission for a month in 2018.....	326
Figure 46. Wisnu in Rama costume wears an obvious akik black necklace around his neck	328
Figure 47. Irma as Trijata in Ramayana Prambanan with other dancers after the performance.....	336