

Table of Contents

Title	i
Approval Page	iii
Declaration	iv
Preface	v
Intisari	vi
Abstract	vii
List of publications and the candidate's contribution	viii
Table of Contents	x
List of Tables	xi
List of Figures	xii
Abbreviations	xiii
CHAPTER I INTRODUCTION	1
1.1. Background	1
1.2. NGOs' development in Indonesia's forest/ environmental issues	2
1.3. Problematization and research objectives	4
1.4. Position of the study in forest policy science	5
1.5. Dissertation arrangement	6
CHAPTER II THEORETICAL APPROACH	7
CHAPTER III METHODS	10
CHAPTER IV RESULTS AND DISCUSSIONS	18
4.1. Reconceptualization of NGOs as OIGs in policy making processes	18
4.1.1. 'Non-profit' and 'pursuing common goals'?	18
4.1.2. Independent from the government and other entities?	19
4.2. Representation-Influence Framework (RIF) for assessing the roles of OIGs in policy making processes	20
4.2.1. Developing criteria and operational indicators	20
4.2.2. Procedures to plotting OIGs into X and Y dimensions	22
4.2.3. Categories and types of OIGs in forest/ environmental governance	24
4.3. The map of OIGs' roles involved in timber legality and social forestry policies in Indonesia	25
4.3.1. En route to fulfilling the claim	27
4.3.2. Breaking the claim	30
4.3.3. Opposing the claim	32
CHAPTER V	34
CONCLUSIONS	34
References	36

List of Tables

Table 1. Selected literature containing definitions/ conceptions of NGOs	11
Table 2. Selected literature used for developing the criteria and operational indicators	12
Table 3. Type and level of informants	16
Table 4. List of observations conducted by the first author	17
Table 5. Criteria and operational indicators in RIF	22
Table 6. A guidance to plot OIGs in the X dimension	23
Table 7. A guidance to plot OIGs in the X dimension	24

List of Figures

- Figure 1. Categories and types of OIGs in forest/ environmental governance 25
- Figure 2. The roles of OIGs in the timber legality policy in Indonesia. Brown circles are OIGs that engage in both focal issues. White circles are OIGs that work in the timber legality issue. 26
- Figure 3. The roles of OIGs in the social forestry policy in Indonesia. Brown circles are OIGs that engage in both focal issues. White circles are OIGs that work in the social forestry issue. 27

Abbreviations

FLEGT VPA: Forest Law Enforcement, Governance and Trade –Voluntary Partnership Agreement
IKM: Industri Kecil Menengah
LPSM: Lembaga Pengembangan Swadaya Masyarakat
LSM: Lembaga Swadaya Masyarakat
MFP: Multi-stakeholders Forestry Program
MoEF: Ministry of Environment and Forestry
MoT: Ministry of Trade
NGOs: Non-governmental Organizations
OIGs: Organized Interest Groups
ORNOP: Organisasi Non Pemerintah
Pokja PPS: Kelompok Kerja Percepatan Perhutanan Sosial
RIF: Representation-Influence Framework
SVLK: Sistem Verifikasi dan Legalitas Kayu
TREE: Timber Regulation Enforcement Exchange
WALHI: Wahana Lingkungan Hidup Indonesia
WWF: World Wide Fund for Nature